

Experience the beauty and richness of one of Mexico's cultural treasures

5-week immersion experience in Oaxaca City

6 hours of upper-level credit in History and Spanish

Study Abroad in Oaxaca, Mexico

June 3-July 8, 2017

Customized Spanish instruction and language immersion

Projects examining small businesses and local micro-lending practices

Visits to local migrant shelters

Visits to historic and cultural sites:

- Monte Alban
- Los Pueblos Mancomunados
- Teotitlán del Valle
- Artisan Workshops

Featured themes:

- Medicine & public health
- Social activism through labor and education reform
- Community activism and volunteerism

Open to UTD students from all majors.

Curriculum is particularly suited for students interested in history, medicine, global studies, Latin American culture, and international business.

Contact:

Monica Rankin

mrarkin@utdallas.edu

*Program cost: $3,000 (does not include tuition, airfare, daily lunch/dinner)